LEES-McRAE COLLEGE

ONTARIO

... produced to help us, the students of Lees-McRae College, remember this year in our lives ... one of many, but one of great importance. At LMC we have lived, we have studied, we have worked, we have played, and we have worshiped. Our stay here has been what we have made it. The events that have occurred this year will remain with us and will have an effect upon us for the rest of our lives And possibly longer.

Read the print; look at the pictures . . . laugh . . . think . . . remember . . .

This is Lees-McRae . . . recorded for you.

"LEES-McRAE COLLEGE is many things. Most important, it is people. Some are students working to add to their store of knowledge. Some simply there to perpetuate their prejudices. Others just looking for a mate. Happily, most achieve their purpose. Some of the people are faculty and administration. The workings of the administration remain a mystery to most students. The faculty meet every day. The administration and faculty combine efforts to challenge the students to excel and to become a part of this unique institution. LEES-McRAE is many things. Lees-McRae represents an idea that is not realized in the stone of its buildings, nor the accumulated wisdom of its library or faculty, but in the minds of the young men and women that attend the "Campus in the Clouds". Lees-McRae is the students; the students are Lees-McRae - not as they exist one by one, but as they are unified by the idea that is contained within them. Among the stone buildings we enter a world that is uniquely our own . . . its people, its rules and traditions, courses of study, its opportunities in both cultural and career area, its full calendar of sports, and its emphasis on personal religious values and on vocational guidance. Each of these has a contribution to each student's individual welfare and growth. By capturing something of the atmosphere of our campus and classroom, with the magic of the camera and the wonder of print, we hope to show some of the things education at Lees-McRae means."

The Lees-McRae campus is more than just housing for the people. The campus can be an inspiration to all of those who look up and around. Its buildings are in a setting of mountain splendor. Students come to this college in the beautiful valley of the Elk, surrounded by the picturesque mountains - The Beech, The Grandfather, The Sugar, and the Hanging Rock . . . When they leave, they realize that it was "home".

This fall, the class of 1966 arrived on campus to be greeted by the sight of a new dormitory, and many campus improvements, and the hope for the eventual fulfillment of a dream. Over the period of our two undergraduate years, we have been allowed to bear witness to the partial fulfillment of that dream.

What is this dream which we are seeing turned into a reality? It is the progress being made in building Lees-McRae College into one of the finest Junior Colleges in the South. As we leave, our two years of undergraduate education completed, we will see more progress and growth as a New Student-Union-Cafeteria Building and a New Library are in the immediate plans for the future. But the work is not yet finished, for a college must constantly grow and expand. Our college is doing just this.

We, in the midst of the growth and development, wish to praise all of these who have helped to make this campus the living monument which has arisen from their faith in the school, its administration, and above all, its students.

Here students find something to remember, but more than that something to live by. There is no value in hours, unless they are well spent, not worth in labor divided in cause. Every student must strive to gain confidence, and have an assurance of why the spirit of Lees-McRae is the spirit that makes a man or woman responsible, sincere, and above all, constant to the ways of Lees-McRae life. Here, the constant challenge, the desire to excel, a stimulus for learning is found. Here, the search for the challenge.

Colonel Max C. Chapman, President

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Twentieth Century is a time of great unrest and turmoil, between individuals and nations. Sheer survival, and certainly the leadership of the future, belongs to young people who prepare themselves now to grapple with the uncertain problems and opportunities which await us all.

Good education is not satisfied when survival alone is assured, however. As a Church-related College, Lees-McRae seeks to bring men and women to awareness of their total responsibilities both to God and to mankind. When you, our students, are on the road toward developing keen minds, strong bodies, and responsible, reverent attitudes, our purpose is realized.

If you are eager to probe deeply into academic frontiers, to be challenged to surpass your present achievements in mind, body, and spirit; if you will work long and hard in order to grow stronger in preparation for responsible living, we welcome you as a participant in our College community.

President

Max C. Chapman

"WHO RUNS THE PRIVATE COLLEGE?"

If you were to stop a faculty or staff member on the campus and ask the question, "Who runs Lees-McRae College?", the reply would be: "A dedicated group of trustees, capable administrative leaders, a competent faculty, and an energetic student body."

His remarks would be proud, candid, and well-founded because the first thought to flash through his mind would be "Who is responsible for the PROGRESS both to the educational program and the physical plant of Lees-McRae?"

PROGRESS is the keynote word on the Lees-McRae campus. No faculty or staff member or student can discuss Lees-McRae College without first referring to the remarkable progress and growth made at the college in the past four years.

The campus, the community, the faculty and the student body have undergone growth and change at a rate that is a bit staggering, even in the space age. The student body has jumped from 285 students, in 1961, to a record enrollment of 600 students this fall. A new science building, modernly equipped, representing an investment of over $300,000, is serving the students now. The Grace Hartley Hospital has been renovated and serves as a girls' dormitory and the other buildings on campus have undergone renovation and improvement. Additional land has been purchased and a new modern four-story men's dormitory opened its doors to house 208 male students this fall. The administration is seeking funds to erect a new library and a combination student union-cafeteria building is on the drawing boards for construction in the near future. As impressive has been the growth and physical changes on campus, Lees-McRae's growth, educationally, has been just as dramatic. Many new offices in administrative service have been created, the faculty has increased from 21, in 1961, to 35 faculty members this year. The curriculum has been broadened in many areas. The college instituted two years ago, along with its regular summer session, a "College Preparatory Program," designed to improve the background of students whose high school record and achievement predict difficulty in their first year of college. Lees-McRae in its lifetime has had some truly good teachers on its faculty. Such is certainly true today. They are academically well-qualified and are a very interested, dedicated and attractive faculty group.

The program for the future, as outlined by the present administration, is a challenging one.

"Who is responsible for the growth, progress, and welfare of Lees-McRae College?"

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The College Committee of the Board of Trustees is chaired by Dr. Lee G. Davy, Executive Vice President, Development, for Tennessee Eastman Corporation of Kingsport, Tennessee. Through Dr. Davy's and each Board member's untiring dedication and loyalty to Lees-McRae, the College Committee has worked diligently and unselfishly for the welfare and progress of the college. They give of their time and talents to help the college meet the challenges that confront an educational institution of today. The Board with a distinguished group of dedicated men from all walks of life offers the proper guidance and direction for Lees-McRae. Members of the College Committee of the Board of Trustees are: Dr. David W. Baker of St. Davids, Pennsylvania, minister and doctor of medicine; Admiral Cato D. Glover, Camden, South Carolina, U. S. Navy, retired; Dr. Ferguson Wood, Johnson City, Tennessee, pastor; Mr. J. H. Carson, Charlotte realtor; Dr. Frontis Johnston, Dean of the Faculty of Davidson College; and Mr. L. Young White, Mooresville construction contractor. Every two years an alumni representative, who has served the two previous years as President of the Alumni Association, serves on the Board of Trustees of the College. The incoming Alumni Representative is Mr. Al Dresser, Architectural Engineer from Charlotte.

Honors and Awards Night

THE PRESIDENT

Since Colonel Max C. Chapman assumed the duties of President in August of 1961, the college has witnessed rapid growth and progress. He has been instrumental in making changes beneficial to the college and its students during his term as President. Colonel Chapman's primary interest is operating the college on a sound financial basis. He seeks to raise funds for improvements to the campus facilities and educational programs. Aside from his tireless efforts in fund raising he also guides the college community with a sound economic philosophy. The college, under Colonel Chapman's direction, is operating presently on a budget of $825,000.00. The operational budget in 1961 was $375,000.00. The program being pursued under President Chapman is an ambitious one and the college stands on the threshold of greater achievements.

THE ACADEMIC DEAN

As the business affairs of the college are directed by its President, the educational program is the primary responsibility of Dr. Robert G. Newman. Dr. Newman received his Ph.D. degree from Drew University last year, and, after a year's experience on the faculty and in the capacity of College Chaplain, took office this summer as Academic Dean. Under the guidance of Dean Newman, the faculty offers sound and competent instruction to Lees-McRae College students. To its liberal arts graduates the college awards the student an introductory foundation in liberal arts and permits emphasis on any one of the sciences, the social studies, or the humanities. The educational programs are planned for those who continue their education at a senior college. Seventy per cent of Lees-McRae graduates continue their education. A course of terminal study is provided for those who plan a career as secretary, medical record librarian, medical secretary, or x-ray technician.

DIRECTOR OF STUDENT SERVICES

The student personnel program is under the direction of Mr. Leroy McCaskey. As Director of Student Services and Admissions, he is responsible for the recruitment and testing of prospective students, the admission and matriculation of each student that enters the college. Under his leadership the Dean of Men, the Dean of Women, the Registrar, and the entire student affairs organization perform the varied and numerous tasks of student services. Proper guidance, direction, and counsel are offered to the students through his office.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

With the help of Student Service Director, Mr. McCaskey and his assistant, Miss Eleanor Osborne, the Student Parliament maintains Lees-McRae College's tradition of efficient student government. The Associated Student Body's purpose is to unify the student body in a common motive of self-government and it stimulates the traditions of the college and strengthens cooperation among students, faculty, and the administration.

"WHO RUNS THE PRIVATE COLLEGE?"

Under capable leadership among the Board of Trustees and in the college administration, and through a competent faculty and a dedicated student body, Lees-McRae College sets as a goal improved junior college status.

DEDICATION

FOR HIS LOYAL AND UNSELFISH SERVICE TO THE LMC TO REV. D. EDWARD RENEGAR . . .

He excites the idle desire to learn with the irreplaceable humor, vitality and cordial personality denied many that undertake the task of teaching. He nourishes enthusiasm while his concepts of equality and self-accomplishment never alter. He excels in life with a dedicated sincerity that commands authority. He is truly the ideal image of the gentleman . . . he is the family man next door . . . the man who believes in fair play . . . the man who believes in life. It is with deep pride that we dedicate the 1966 ONTAROGA to Mr. D. Edward Renegar.

STUDENT BODY WE DEDICATE THE '66 ONTAROGA

Mr. Renegar graduated from Maryville College, Maryville, Tennessee, in 1947 with a B. S. degree CUM LAUDE, and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary in 1951. He was awarded the Master of Theology degree at Louisville in 1956, and studied two years in Louisville College of Pharmacy and a graduate of Moody Bible Institute.

He taught one year of beginning Greek at King College, Bristol, Tenn. He has held the office of permanent clerk of Louisville Presbytery, stated clerk of Guerrant Presbytery, and secretary of standing committee on the Minister and His Work of the 1956 meeting of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. He has held pastorates in the Guerrant Memorial Church, Jackson, Kentucky, and Fairmount Presbyterian Church, Bristol, Tenn. Before entering the ministry, he was employed for several years by Alcoa, as a Chemical Analyst. He was married in 1940 to Miss Anna Louise Hall, of Louisville, Kentucky. They have four children: Ruth Anne, Robert Davidson, Susan Alice (who is a freshman at LMC), and Stephen Edward. His hobbies and special interests are reading, billiards, chess, and all sports.

ACTIVITIES . . .

To a student, the many hours of studying are not at all a true picture of what his activities are to be in the future, when he leaves college life behind. In order to make the campus more worldly to its students, it has been found that the clubs, organizations, and fraternities bring a type of social life that best can depict the life that lies ahead for the students. The organizations are built upon service and leadership at Lees-McRae.

The Student Parliament has as its purpose the unifying of the student body in the common goal of self-government in order to assume responsibility that will aid the members in their future life. Phi Theta Kappa is an honorary Fraternity to recognize those students who have maintained outstanding scholastic achievements and which strives to continue an academic atmosphere away from the classroom. The Order of the Tower is to recognize those students who have shown outstanding qualities of leadership and whose members, by assisting at special programs as marshals and hosts, promote the general welfare of the college.

The Christian Council strives to bring better spiritual aspects into campus life. The Council stimulates Christian thought, study and service within the student body.

The Sullivanian Sorority and the Demosthenean Club are related organizations. Their members sponsor dances and other social activities, as well as serve the college in other small capacities. The WAA and Monogram Club are also related organizations. These two are composed of the athletes on campus, who try to put forth an athletic environment for those who desire such.

Delta Psi Omega is organized for the students who prefer a more dramatic life. The organization entertains the whole student body as it gives different presentations during the year. The BOBCAT TALES is the college informer in print, giving journalistic minded students an opportunity to display their talent.

ASB LABORS TO PROMOTE GOOD GOVERNMENT

Under the leadership of Charles Noe, A.S.B. President, the Student Parliament strove to maintain LMC's tradition of a conscientious student government. The purpose of the A.S.B. is to unify the student body in the common motive of self-government, to stimulate the traditions of the college, and to promote and strengthen co-operation among students, faculty, and administration.

Guided by Miss Eleanor Osborne, this year's Student Parliament initiated and participated in many projects. These included: the Freshman Orientation Program, promotion of Rat Week, preparation for Homecoming, several bus trips to football and basketball games, and additional activities such as a student directory.

One of the major projects of this year's Student Parliament was to initiate a Point System for the students of LMC. A committee under the leadership of Larry Ellison was appointed to set up the regulations for this system. A committee headed by Lenna Walker and Nancy Trotter was responsible for preparing and distributing a student directory containing each student's name, address, and telephone number as well as information concerning each of the clubs and organizations on campus. Through the efforts of Larry Smith, suggestion boxes were distributed in each dormitory. Donna Hillman, by way of a student's suggestion and the cooperation of the Dean of Women, succeeded in extending the hours for women students to receive phone calls in their dormitories.

The association spearheaded many social and academic events, all leading to an enjoyable and successful year for Lees-McRae students, faculty, and administration.

The Senior Residents, under the supervision of the Dean of Men, Carl Herckner, are young men who have shown qualities of maturity and leadership. These residents strive to set a good example to the students in all phases of college life. By maintaining an orderly program in the Dormitory, they were able to promote an atmosphere conducive to study and relaxation. The Administration appointed Arnold Freeman, Randy Sills, Bob Harrison, and Ronnie Rossello in the New Men's Dorm; Phil Junot and John Reardon in McAlsiter; Charlie Noe in New Reid; and Warren Wetmore in Old Reid. These men played a vital role and held a position of high responsibility.

OT IN FOURTH YEAR. . . MEMBERS SERVE IN LEADERSHIP CAPACITY

The primary purpose of the Order of the Tower is to serve Lees-McRae and the administration in a leadership capacity and to promote the general welfare of the college. It is one of the most outstanding service organizations at Lees-McRae College. The Club promotes good relations in all areas and serves as an advisory body to the faculty.

Members of the Club assist in orientation, serve as hosts for visiting groups and dignitaries, and marshals for graduation and special programs. The last service rendered by each year's outgoing members is the direction of the awards night program. The annual Halloween Carnival provides a money-making project for the Order of the Tower, as well as for other clubs on campus.

As an honorary society, the members were rewarded at a number of banquets. New sophomore members were elected at the close of the first quarter, while new freshmen members were elected after tabulation of the first semester grades.

The club sponsored the dart-throwing booth at the Halloween Carnival. Members held a bake sale to raise money to send three representatives to the regional convention. For the national headquarters, Beta Tau sent out questionnaires to past fraternity members for information on their present activities. Also the fraternity yearly awards a scholarship to a deserving, rising sophomore . . .

Honor students reap many rewards: here, a dinner in their honor.

The primary purpose of the Christian Council is to promote Christian leadership and to stimulate high ideals in our society. The Christian Council acts as the steering body for the Campus Christian Fellowship and serves as the head of the different denominational groups on campus. The requirements for membership designate that a student display a Christian attitude on campus, a willingness to serve, and achieve at least a "C" average in his academic life.

Chaplain Philip Evaul, in his first year at LMC, was a tremendous source of ideas and was a very efficient advisor to the Council. Under the leadership of Alton Beard, President, the Council has functioned with assistance from Fritz Riebe, Vice-President, Linda Smith, Secretary, and Becky Coble, Treasurer. The success of the Big Brother and Big Sister program at Grandfather Home for Children can be largely attributed to the endeavors of Tom Marshall and Lenny Hornick. Fritz Riebe proved a valuable asset in acquiring student participation in our Vespers programs and the same is true of Edith Rosenblatt in her work on the hospital visitation program. Larry Ellison served as the spokesman for the Council in our appeal to the student body for aid concerning the Christmas donations for the less fortunate in the Banner Elk community.

The Christian Council has sponsored various activities including Mountain climbs, square dances, the selling of sleds and has also set aside a scholarship for the college pianist. To provide a renewing appearance in our chapel and vespers programs the Council purchased a new cross, offering plates, candle holders, and additional hymnals.

LMC CHORUS

The L.M.C. Concert Choir under the direction of Miss Mary R. Crawford has participated in the Sunday evening Vesper services this year endeavoring to present to the student body a diversified and worthwhile selection of sacred choral music. During the Christmas season a cantata entitled GOD'S SON IS BORN by Peggy Hoffmann was presented.

In the Spring, the choir made its annual tour through the state of Virginia stopping for concerts in such well known cities as Roanoke, Danville, and Lynchburg.

The Wee Queir is a group of eight singers selected from the Concert Choir. This year the Wee Queir entertained tour audiences during the regular intermission with their presentation of a Brahms collection of German folk songs. The members are Peggy Roberts, Gail Presson, Sopranos; Elaine Austin, Jean Hitchcock, Altos; Richard Browning, Mike Stevens, Tenors; and Barry Lambert, Carl Ramsdell, Basses.

Sportsmanship, character, and a true interest in athletic accomplishment are but some of the qualities a young woman is evaluated on in becoming a member of the Women's Athletic Association. Participation in two-thirds of the intramural program is required, as genuine interest is equally rated with skill.

The club began this year's activities by sponsoring the "shave-the-balloon" booth at the Halloween Carnival. The members graced the ladies at Homecoming as they sold yellow mums for the occasion. The sports fans were kept in the know with the programs sold by the club at each of the basketball and football games. The main project for the members came when the Association co-sponsored, along with the Monogram Club, the annual May Dance.

Towards the end of the year at the Honors and Awards Night, a Citizenship Award is given to the club's choice of the most outstanding citizen on campus.

MONOGRAM CLUB HAS LARGEST ENROLLMENT

The Monogram Club is the largest organization on Lees-McRae campus. Eligibility to this club is granted to those boys who earn a letter in intercollegiate sports at Lees-McRae. The purpose of this men's athletic club is to promote good sportsmanship on and off the athletic field and to meet and entertain visiting teams courteously. They are leaders on campus by setting good, clean, and healthful standards of living. This club is also known for the academic standing of its members.

Each year the Monogram Club presents the school with one major project and gives senior members a life time membership and a plaque to remember this great club forever. Other projects are: freshman awards; football, basketball, track, and baseball awards; the upkeep on their project in the student center; and old timers day at Homecoming.

THE SULLIVANIAN SORORITY

The Sullivanian Sorority is the girl's leadership organization on campus. To be eligible for membership, a girl must have exhibited leadership and high moral character. This organization is named in honor of Mrs. Mary Sullivan of New York. The purpose is to develop personality and character through fellowship and service.

The Sorority began its year of activities in the fall with helping with registration and Freshman orientation, followed by the tea for Freshman girls. Later in the year, the club went together with the Delta Delta Gamma Fraternity to co-sponsor the Christmas and Valentine Dances. During the Spring, the club assisted with the testing program for prospective students and collected magazines for the hospital from the faculty and staff.

This year's officers were Edie Rosenblatt, President, Judy Lowe, Vice-President, Beth Amos, Secretary, Janice Shortt, First Semester Treasurer, and Susan Ferguson, Second Semester Treasurer. Miss Marilyn Fillers was sponsor, leading the girls and lending a helping hand or a word of advice when necessary. Several of the girls who did extra work for the dances were Kay Adams, Caroline Moore, Betsy Clapp, Toby Hodgins, Judy Lowe, and Liz Wrenn. It took all the combined efforts of all the girls to make all the activities possible.

The members of the Demosthenean Club are men who have been active leaders. Each one is a highly qualified gentleman who has been discreetly selected to this honorary position. By this recognition of true leaders it is hoped that spiritual, cultural, and academic progress can be nurtured.

The 1965-66 Demosthenean Fraternity surged toward new eminence. Through the spiritual guidance of men like Alton Beard, the fraternity consolidated into a smoothly functioning unit. Barry Marsh was one of the fraternity's cultural pace-setters. Likewise, Arnold Freeman heads the list of those who excelled academically. The examples set by these and the many other outstanding Demostheneans made the organization a leader in exemplifying the true spirit of Lees-McRae College.

Bobcat Tales
LEES-McRAE COLLEGE

With a new market of varied writing talent along with a greater number of students interested in management, advertising, and journalistic training, the Bobcat Tales has yet to be equaled in presenting campus news and student opinion to Lees-McRae and the alumni.

The Bobcat Tales is a monthly publication under the guidance and patient assistance of Miss Eleanor Osborne, Sponsor, as well as the wit and continual advice of Mr. Donald Baker, Layout and Technical Advisor. The Editor and Staff have maintained high standards of publication, making the Bobcat Tales an important link between campus life and the student.

THE ONTAROGA STAFF

The individuals of this year's Staff whose images appear on these pages are solely responsible for the pictures and copy appearing in this, the 1966 ONTAROGA. The errors found in and the grudges against the material herein can only be overshadowed by the many accurate accounts of the events and of the people that have made this year at Lees-McRae.

Those who have contributed their time to these seemingly endless pages found satisfaction and friendship with their co-workers that will long be remembered. Mr. Baker, Herman, Kay, Sandra, Donna, Linda and Gail along with Ellen, Edith, Gale, Martha, and Wily Bobcat have especially worked hard to include as many people and events as possible.

We, the 1966 ONTAROGA Staff, hope that we have contained in this edition something to be a help to each of the students in remembering this year of his life at the "Campus in the Clouds".

DELTA PSI OMEGA

The Delta Psi Omega is a national honorary fraternity and is a recognized division of Alpha Psi Omega, the dramatic fraternity for four year colleges and universities. The purpose of this fraternity is to stimulate interest in dramatic activities at Lees-McRae College and to serve as a reward for worthy students who have shown special interest and aptitude in dramatics. Before Christmas, the Delta Psi Omega presented "A Child's Christmas in Wales" by Dylan Thomas, which was directed by Tommy Waterman and Mary Bess Riley. In the production David Haynes was the narrator and David Campbell played the lead role as the child. The play was uniquely presented as a dream behind a cheesecloth front drop. In May the fraternity presented, "Under the Yum Yum Tree" by Lawrence Roman, directed by Mary Bess Riley. The three act play, a delightful comedy, was the final production of the fraternity for the year. The officers, Mary Bess Riley, President; Herman Underwood, Vice-President; Pepper Peterson, Secretary, and Corkie Huckabee, Treasurer, have played major roles in presenting dramatic works to the Lees-McRae faculty and students.

CHEERLEADERS

Beth Amos, head cheerleader.

With outstanding athletic achievements combined with the boisterous charm of the cheer-leading squad, Lees-McRae rooters had plenty to cheer about. Enthusiasm proved instrumental in leading LMC's athletic teams to successful seasons.

The Lees-McRae Cheerleaders, led by Head Cheerleader Beth Amos, have done a magnificent job this year in cheering our Bobcats to victory in a superb style and manner unfamiliar to Lees-McRae College in recent years.

With never-dying radiance of school and deep concern, these girls always had a cheer to boost the Bobcat effort even when the chips were down. ATHLETICS . . .

Bobcats playing to win . . . proud in victory . . . accepting defeat gracefully . . . participants find that athletics molds character . . . builds physical strength . . .

Student participation in athletics is always a rewarding experience. The athlete finds the highest degree of satisfaction in meeting the challenges of competition and giving them his best. Sports at LMC offer a challenge in competition with others and with the school's previous records. The Physical Education Program provides the student with a means to improve the physical fitness of his body and with an opportunity to further develop this fitness. The student feels more alert, more alive, and better suited for life if he has an opportunity for daily exercise in a rigorous program.

At LMC the athletics are well-programmed to set forth a challenge to the student, thereby helping him to develop his over-all character and physical strength. Athletes as well as fans find that winning is an uphill climb but a gratifying experience. They learn to accept defeat gracefully.

The challenge of competition is the binding spirit in all athletics. Playing to win . . . but accepting losses . . . learning sportsmanship as it applies to the game of life. At Lees-McRae, both spectators and participants benefit from athletics.

BOBCAT GRIDDERS ENJOY BEST SEASON IN YEARS...

Sandy Creed recovers fumble. Assisting on the play is Frank "The Tank" Wright (56) and Bill Query (66). The defensive unit of the Cats turned in their usual sterling performance. The outstanding line play of England, Wright, Ratcliff, Teeter, Bollick, Creed, and Withers held the Panthers at bay. On four occasions Ferrum penetrated Lees-McRae's 20 yard line only to be stopped by fierce line play by the Bobcats. The Cats made a tremendous goal-line stance.

Rossello scores against Ferrum. Ronnie Rossello crashed over from the one-yard line. Lees-McRae was the only team to score against Ferrum on the ground this season. The Bobcats held the nationally ranked team to 84 yards rushing. The Panthers had been averaging over 200 yards per game rushing. They had only been scored on twice in the season and each time on passes. Three passes from Mike McCall to Sizemore ate up 29 yards and the 46 yard drive was climaxed by Rossello's 3 yard plunge.

BRAVES DOWN L-M 23-6

In the opening games with Chowan the Bobcats received the opening kickoff, but failed to make the necessary first down. Don Lambert's booming punt was ruled dead at Chowan's one foot line, and the LMC defensive team went to work, Chowan's first offensive play proved to be the first score for the Bobcats, as an alert tackle for LMC, Bob Lyons, pounced on a Chowan fumble in the end zone for a quick six points for his team. The extra point failed to split the up-rights, and the Bobcats had to settle for a 6-0 lead. Before the first half ended, however, Chowan had scored and made the extra point, sending the Bobcats to the dressing room at halftime with a 7-6 disadvantage.

Disaster struck when LMC was pushed back to her own five yard line and forced to punt. Chowan scored a safety when Lambert lost control of the ball and was tackled in the end zone. At this point, the defense weakened and the Braves from Murfreesboro managed to slip through for two more touchdowns in the later stages of the game. The final score was 23-6.

BOBCATS RUSH BY APPALACHIAN JV'S 26-0

The Bobcats found a game with the JV's of Appalachian State to be an excellent chaser after the belt from Chowan a week earlier. Returning to Banner Elk with a 26-0 romp over the Mountaineer's Junior Varsity, the Bobcats had proved themselves to be a 100% improved team over the one that had made the long trip to Murfreesboro earlier in the season.

Quarterbacks Fritz Riebe and Mike McCall both did fine jobs on that afternoon of September 17. Riebe led one long march down the field for a score. The touchdown came on a run by Pat Phelan. The next touchdown was made by Arnold Freeman after he intercepted a pass and ran fifty yards for the tally. McCall then took the team down the field on two occasions, one of the scores coming on a Ron Rossello run from the four yard line and the other tally being the result of a pass to Gary Vick.

GARDNER-WEBB SPOILS HOMECOMING

The Gardner-Webb Bulldogs, who shocked the Bobcats by going to the air, spoiled Lees-McRae's Homecoming by scoring a 6-0 victory over the Bobcats before more than 2,500 fans.

Gerald Mathis scored the Bulldog's lone touchdown in the second period on a 1-yard plunge. Lees-McRae's big tackle, Roger Teeter, broke through the line to block the extra point. The touchdown was set up on two passes from quarterback Allen Dunnagan to Tom Gillis and Malcom Singleton. The Bulldogs went to the air on the throwing arms of Dunnagan and Pinckney Guerard. Arnold Freeman, Frank Wright, Mike Sizemore, Jim Walker, George Drake, and Tony England drew praise for their defensive contribution for Lees-McRae.

Lees-McRae thwarted a Bulldog drive when defensive half George Drake knocked down a pass on the 5-yard line intended for Gillis. On the next play Frank Wright and Cecil Ratcliff racked Malcolm Singleton and jarred the ball loose, and Arnold Freeman recovered. Another drive was halted when big Jim Walker pounced on a loose Gardner-Webb ball and recovered possession for the Bobcats.

The Bobcats could not get their offense going as three pass interceptions stopped their drives and a fumble with 4:35 left in the game lost the possession of the ball and a possible tie or a victory over the G.W. Bulldogs.

MCCALL LEADS BOBCATS IN STINGING WASPS

Quarterback Mike McCall scored two touchdowns and passed for another here Thursday afternoon, September 23, as the Lees-McRae Bobcats hurdled the Emory & Henry JV 19-0.

McCall rambled 50 yards for the first Bobcat score in the initial period. The kick failed for the extra point. Early in the third period McCall tossed an 18-yard touchdown pass to Mike Sizemore that was called back on an off-side penalty against the Bobcats. Two plays later McCall dropped back and rifled a 25-yard pass to the big All-American candidate Sizemore and he carried two men into the end zone for the score. In the slippery mud, McCall bobbled the snap from the center and Jim Daugherty's try for the extra point was bad.

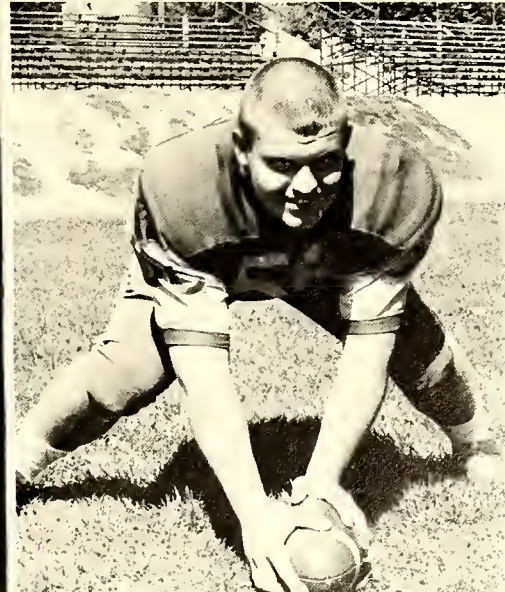

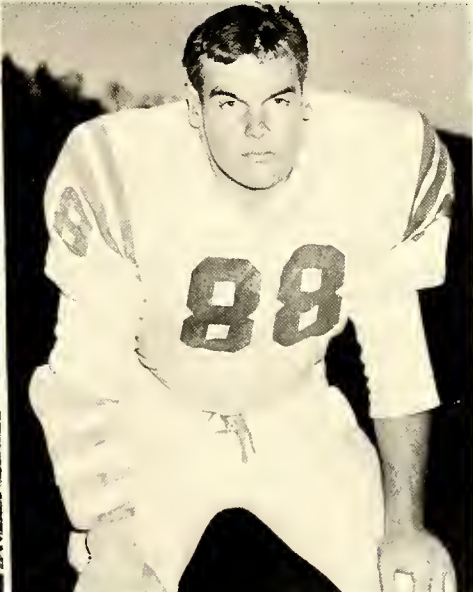

In the same period Frank Sutton gathered in a wobbly Emory punt and outran the Wasp defenders on a beautiful 42-yard touchdown run only to be called back on a holding penalty. The Bobcats amassed 125 yards in penalties. Later in the third period McCall faded back and hit Gary Vick who made a spectacular one-hand catch while he was covered with two secondary defenders. He fell to the 3-yard line. From there McCall followed Frankie Wright over on a 3-yard plunge and the Bobcats led 18-0. Jim Daugherty's kick for the extra point was good and the Bobcats enjoyed a 19-0 lead.

BOBCATS LOSE BY NIGHT IN SHELBY: 19-6

The Gardner-Webb Bulldogs unleashed a grueling ground attack to defeat the Lees-McRae Bobcats, in the Blanton Memorial Stadium in Shelby under the lights, to the tune 19-6.

Behind the running of Gerald Mathis and Malcolm Singleton, after a short punt to the G.W. eleven, the Bulldogs moved the ball 17-yards. A five yard penalty moved the ball inches out for the score. Sandy Creed blocked the try for the extra point and the Bulldogs led 6-0.

The second Gardner-Webb touchdown came when Pinckney Guerard was back in punt formation and the ball was snapped far over his head. What looked like sudden disaster turned into a 90-yard touchdown run. Guerard ran back to pick up the ball on the 10-yard line and began to pick his way through the Lees-McRae defenders, and stumbled into the end zone for the touchdown. The kick was good and Gardner-Webb led 13-0.

In the fourth quarter Lees-McRae's Gary Chenevey intercepted a pass on the Lees-McRae 30-yard line and raced to the Gardner-Webb five yard line before he was pulled down from behind. But the 65-yard run with the intercepted pass was all in vain as McCall fumbled on the first play from scrimmage and Gardner-Webb took over to halt the Bobcat threat. Gardner-Webb scored midway in the fourth quarter on a ten yard run. Gerald Mathis, on a drive that started on the 40-yard line of Lees-McRae Bobcats after an intercepted pass, crashed through the line for the touchdown. With four minutes remaining to play Mike McCall hit Gary Chenevey on a 40-yard pass play for the Bobcats lone touchdown.

VICK FINDS NEW POSITION AGAINST HARGRAVE

Gary Vick, used sparingly all year as a ball carrier because of his ability as a blocker and valuable pass receiving talent, broke loose from his new full-back position for long gains and a 17 yard scoring gaunt to lead Lees-McRae to a 12-0 victory over Hargrave Military Academy at Banner Elk.

Vick was the total offense rushing leader with 64 yards on the ground and 75 yards on passes from Quarterback Mike McCall. Pat Phelan, freshmen speedster, rushed for 71 yards and was on the receiving end of a 12 yard aerial from McCall.

Arnold Freeman picked off a low Hargrave pass behind the line of scrimmage and dashed untouched into the end zone from 27 yards out for the second score. Frank Wright's two attempts for the extra points failed. Cecil Ratcliff was the workhorse on defense for the Bobcats. Ratcliff broke up several screen passes set up by the Hargrave Tigers and constantly crashed the line stopping Tiger backs. The big end had ample support for Guard Tony England, End Mike Sizemore, and Tackle Roger Teeter.

The Bobcats last two scoring opportunities-one on a clipping penalty that nullified a beautiful circus catch by Gary Chenevey on a pass from Mike McCall; and a offside penalty and a holding penalty offset another scoring opportunity.

BOBCAT'S DEFENSE THROTTLES CHOWAN

With first string halfback Gary Vick injured on the second play from scrimmage and with halfback Ron Rossello ejected from the game in the second quarter after a brief melee that developed when tempers flared several plays after a Bobcat touchdown, the Bobcats found running room behind David Ahles and a staunch defense bowed its back and stifled previously eighth-ranked Chowan 7-0 in Banner Elk.

England, Ratcliff, Teeter, Wright, Creed, Street, and Sizemore stayed in Chowan's backfield all day, harassing quarterback Clarence Murphy, who led the conference in passing, and held Joe Manring and Chowan backs to minus eight (-8) yards rushing, a team who had averaged 185 yards rushing per game before the Saturday contest.

The Bobcat drive started on the 29 after Chowan's Murphy had boomed a 46-yard punt that rolled dead there, and two plays later Ahles and Rossello moved the ball 20 yards and two first downs. A 33-yard pass play from Mike McCall to end Gary Chenevey moved the ball to the 18-yard line where McCall faded back and hit Iron-Man Sizemore who carried two men into the end zone for the only TD of the game. Frank "the Tank" Wright boomed the extra point kick through the uprights and the Bobcats led 7-0.

The game was plagued with injuries as each team was hitting fiercely. Gary Vick received a knee injury on the second carry for the flashy Bobcat back. Doug Davidson was injured and had to leave the game. Several Chowan players were helped from the field. Frank "the Tank" Wright collided with Chowan's great halfback, Joe Manring, and Manring was added temporarily and Wright had to get a new headgear after his was crushed--incurring the head-on collision.

Gary Chenevey, George Drake, and Frank Sutton put in sterling performances in the secondary as they held Chowan to 43 yards thru the air on 21 attempts and only 4 completions. Chowan had averaged 105 yards per game in the passing department and Murphy had connected on 41 passes in 83 attempts. Chenevey had 3 interceptions to his credit.

FERRUM EDGES LEES-McRAE 7-6

Ferrum scored early in the first quarter and their sterling defense held up for the next three quarters to make it stick at 7-6 over an upset-minded Lees-McRae.

Ferrum's touchdown was set-up when Ronnie Rossello fumbled the ball on the fourteen while trying to field a Ferrum punt. Ferrum recovered on Lees-McRae 11 yard line and three plays later Frank Sorrells crashed over from the three yard line for the score. Ray Harris booted the extra point that eventually decided the contest.

Lees-McRae's score came early in the fourth quarter right after the two teams had changed ends of the field. With a minute and 36 seconds gone in the fourth quarter Lees-McRae's Ronnie Rossello plunged into the end zone from the 3 yard line to score on a drive that started on the 46 yard line. Three passes from Mike McCall to Mike Sizemore ate up 29 yards and four carries by Ronnie Rossello accounted for the other 17 and the drive was climaxed by Rossello's three yard plunge. Linebacker Lou Santospago blocked the extra point kick by Frank Wright and Ferrum led by the slim margin of 7-6.

In the closing minutes of the game Lees-McRae marched 66 yards behind the running of Ronnie Rossello and a pass from Mike McCall to Gary Chenevey, that ate up 50 yards, to put the Bobcats on the 18 yard line with less than a minute to play. Frank Wright came in to try a field goal, but the attempt was blocked by Santospago, Bob Profitko, and, thus Lees-McRae's hopes dimmed of a victory over a powerful Ferrum team.

BOBCATS FINISH WITH 5-5 RECORD... SHOW VAST IMPROVE

David Ahles carries for a long gain against the Chowan Braves. Leading the way is Rocky Rossello, (on ground). The Bobcats downed favored Chowan 7-0. Ahles took over for the injured Gary Vick on

LEES-McRAE CLOSSES SEASON WITH COME-FROM-BEHIND WIN
Lees-McRae's Bobcats came from behind a 6-0 deficit with a pair of fourth period touchdowns and closed out their football schedule on a winning note with a 14-6 victory over Carolina Military.
Pat Phelan's electrifying 59 yard run early in the fourth period and Frank Wright's conversion the Bobcats a 7-6 lead after Tommy Bollock had gone 98 yards for Carolina's score in the third period.

Mike McCall passed to Gary Chenevey who lateraled to Phelan who went the remaining 59 yards to get the Bobcats on the scoreboard for the first time. The play covered 69 yards.
Later in the fourth Riebe scored on a one-yard plunge for Lees-McRae and Wright converted to put the game out of Carolina's reach.
The victory gave the Bobcats a seasonal mark of five wins and five losses.

MENT... POINT TO NEXT SEASON WITH TALENTED FRESHMEN...

Rocky Rossello rambles through Hargrave for a long gain. He picks up a valuable block from an unidentified Bobcat gridder. In the background is Bill Query, No. 66. In three games, the Hargrave, the Chowan, and the Ferrum, Rossello thundered through the line like the Atlanta Special late in its schedule. Against Ferrum, he was the workhouse for the Bobcats as he rushed for 106 yards, 36 attempts, and 1 touchdown. Rossello led the Region Ten Conference in rushing.

The Bobcats launched the first part of their season with seven victories against one defeat. They lost the next five games but regained their poise and ended their season on a winning note with a 14-10 over-all record and a 6-6 conference mark. This boosted head coach George Litton's over-all record, since taking over at the helm to 32-19 over-all record and an enviable 16-9 conference record. The Bobcats were a team of character and determination - holding their head high in victory as well as in defeat. In a letter from tournament officials, the following statement was made by the chairman of the tournament committee: "The leadership and training which the young men were given was demonstrated at the tournament. Also noted was the good sportsmanship, the courage, the stamina, and the courtesy of your team. We were also greatly impressed by the support that your fans gave to the team. The manly way in which the team took defeat and victory was outstanding."

Chenevey hits two . . .

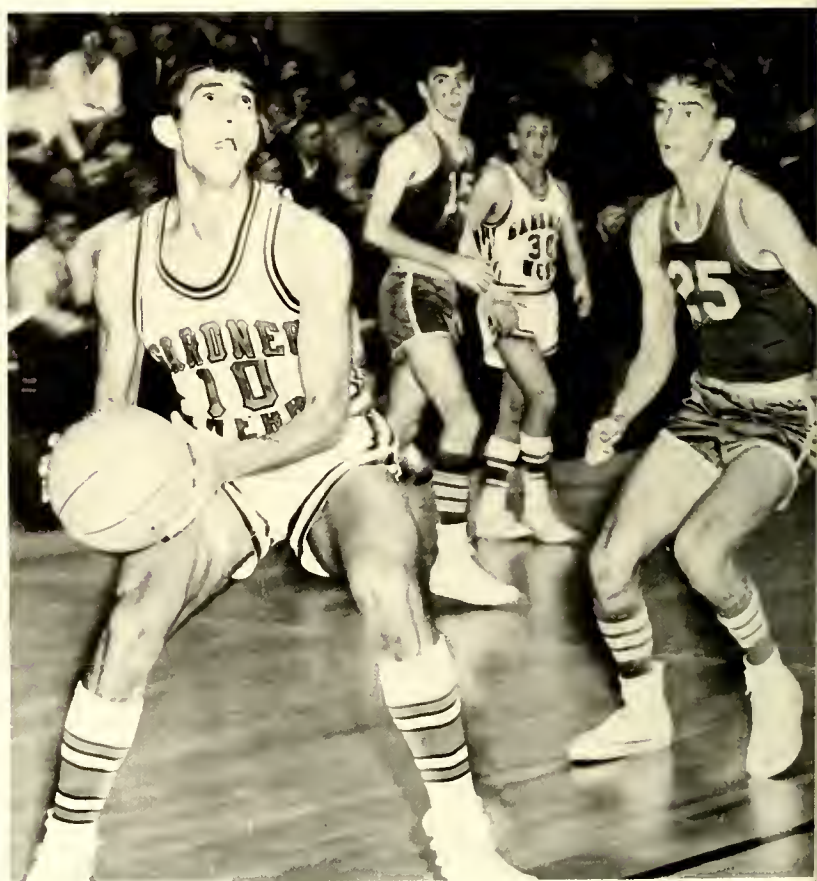

Gary Chenevey, who led the Bobcats to a third-place finish in the regular season play and to a third-place finish in the WCJCC Tournament held at Forest City, has received many honors since he first pulled on a Lees-McRae basketball jersey.

Last year as a freshman, Gary was voted to be a member of the all-conference team. As a sophomore, Gary repeated this honor and added several more to his list. Gary provided stiff competition for the spotlight honors in the scoring department for the conference this year, he led the conference in rebounding, and was the high scorer in the conference tournament when he scored 77 points in the three games. Gary was rewarded for his supreme efforts by being selected for the all-tournament team as well as the all-conference team.

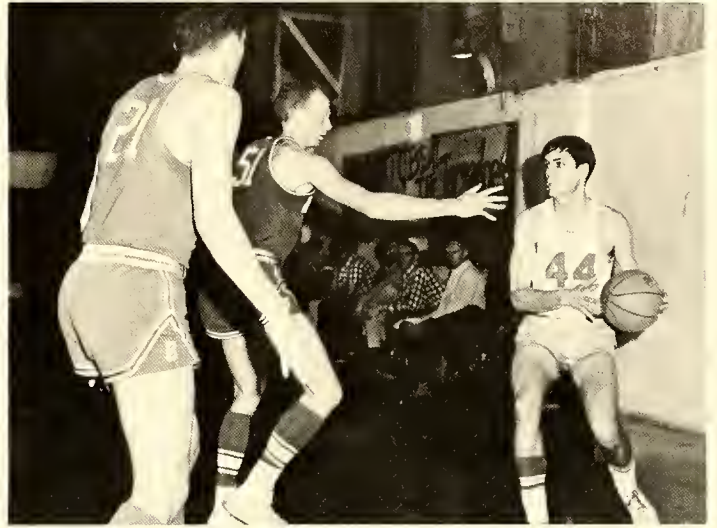

Perhaps the greatest honor of his entire basketball career was awarded to Gary when he was named to the five-man all-region team, selected by the coaches of the Western Carolina Conference, the Cavalier Tar Heel Conference, and the four independent teams that play with these conferences. Only five players from 22 colleges are chosen for this "Dream Team," and Gary was one of only three players to be chosen unanimously.

Gary wouldn't quit until he had rewritten the record books in two departments here at Lees-McRae. He broke the previous record for the most points scored in a single game when he swished 40 points through the nets against the opposition of Emory and Henry's JV's. Gary also broke the record for the rebounds that night with the most in a single game by pulling down 33 rebounds with Emory and Henry.

For the 1965-1966 Basketball season, Gary averaged 21.5 points per game with 18.2 rebounds. He was second in the conference in the scoring department, and was voted "Most Valuable Player" this year. Also, the Captain of the 1966 Bobcats, the services of this 6'4", 195 pound sophomore are being sought by several senior colleges.

TRACK

The 1966 Bobcat thinclads were led by Captain Fritz Riebe. Very little was expected of this freshman-studded team, but during the season they furnished some thrills for the Lees-McRae student body.

When the short season began there were high hopes that many school records would fall. Some of the potential record breakers for the 'Cats were Fritz Riebe in the middle distance and broadjump, George Drake in the pole vault, Barry Whetstine in the sprints, Dennis Shockley and Ron Powers in the shot and discus as well as Arnold Freeman in the javelin. Coach Whittaker and Asst. Coach Leland Loose were pleased with the performance of the team during the year. With a little luck the Bobcats could have won the conference meet.

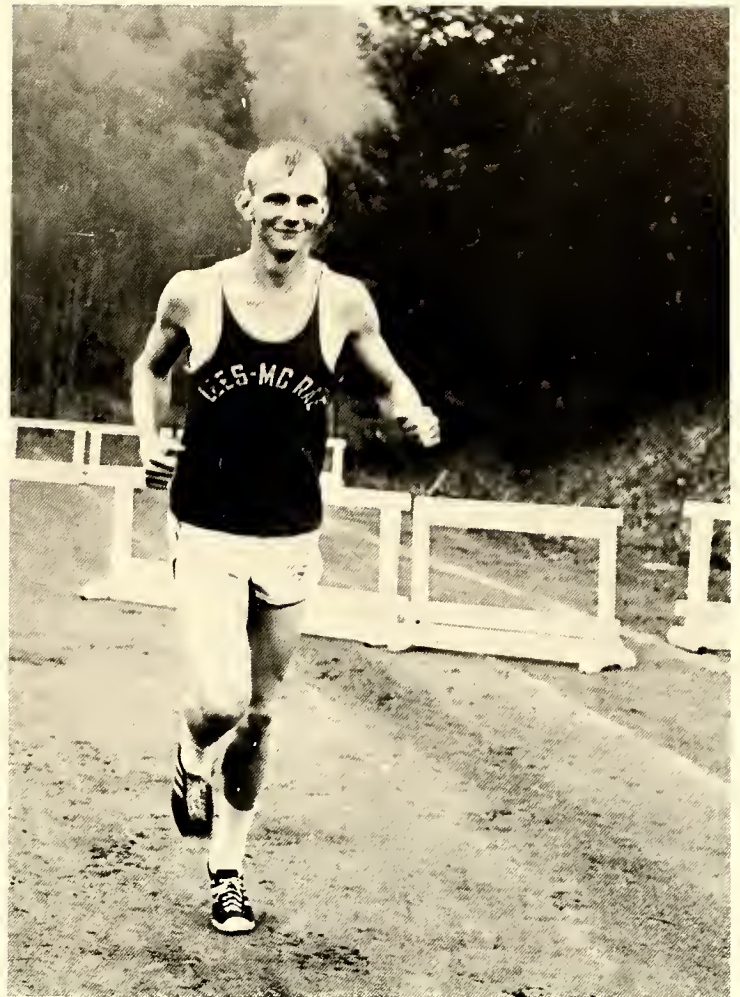

At right Head Coach Ron Whittaker discusses program with star cinderman and captain Jim McGowan.

Fritz Riebe soars for record breaking broad jump. Riebe holds the new school record in the broad jump with 21'7".

Captain Jim McGowan.
 Lees-McRae's Jim McGowan was high scorer two years in a row for the Bobcats. In '65 he was high scorer with 67 points. He holds the school records in the 220 low hurdles and the 120 high hurdles.

Fritz Riebe '66 captain.
 Fritz was second in scoring last season with 54 individual points. This year he will be out to break the conference 880 and broad jump records. He holds both records at the college. He was also a member of the record breaking mile relay and 440 relay teams.

The freshmen-laden Lees-McRae Cindermen faced a rugged schedule in '65 as they opened with a dual meet with Brevard and Wofford Colleges. They entered the Piedmont Relays at Furman University and met Gardner Webb and Wingate twice before entering the WCJC Conference at Brevard. Despite the fact that the Bobcat Thinclads had several outstanding athletes, they dropped far back in the tournament with 21 points. Riebe took first place in the 880. McGowan took first place in the high jump to take the only big honors for the Bobcats at the tournament meet. Sam Prevette set a new school record of 51 seconds in the 440 as he came in second to Brevard's great Carroll Maxwell, who shattered the conference record with 41.0 time for the event. McGowan tied the school record in the low hurdles with 25.8 time, but could only manage a second place in the conference meet. Riebe shattered the school 880 record set by Ken Sullivan in 1959 but was still off the conference record. High scorers for the tournament went to Brevard's Maxwell and Earl Holbrook of Gardner Webb with 10 points each and Jim McGowan of LMC who scored 9 points. Stanley Clark broke his own record of 11'-3" when he cleared 11'-9" in the pole-vault to establish a new school record.

The 1965 tennis team opened its season under the capable leadership of two veterans, Andy Gabriel and John Jessen, with newcomers Charlie Noe and Bill Oehler providing ample support. The Bobcat Netters lost their opening contest to Milligan's Junior Varsity, but won the rest of their games, including a 5-4 victory over Milligan later in the season, and were edged by Wingate College for the conference championship in a hard fought 3-2 contest. The Bobcats lost to Wingate in the WCJC tennis tournament held at Wingate.

Gabriel ended the season 5-2 in the conference, 2-1 non-conference, and 7-3 over-all. Jessen was 7-0 in the conference, 2-1 non-conference, 9-1 over-all. Noe was 6-1 in the conference, 1-2 non-conference, and 7-3 over-all. Oehler was 7-0 in conference play and 1-1 non-conference, for an 8-1 over-all record. Seahorn, McKeever, Schmutz, and Roy Gray saw limited action.

Andy Gabriel, Captain

John Jessen, Alternate Captain

This season Noe and Oehler will have a host of freshmen providing depth to the Netters. The brightest spots of the '66 squad are freshmen Donnie Johnson, of Virginia Beach, and Ronnie Rossello, of Atlanta. Coach Baker will look to John Weaver, Harry Herkner, Bruce Horton and Jim Smith to give the 'Cats depth.

INTRAMURALS

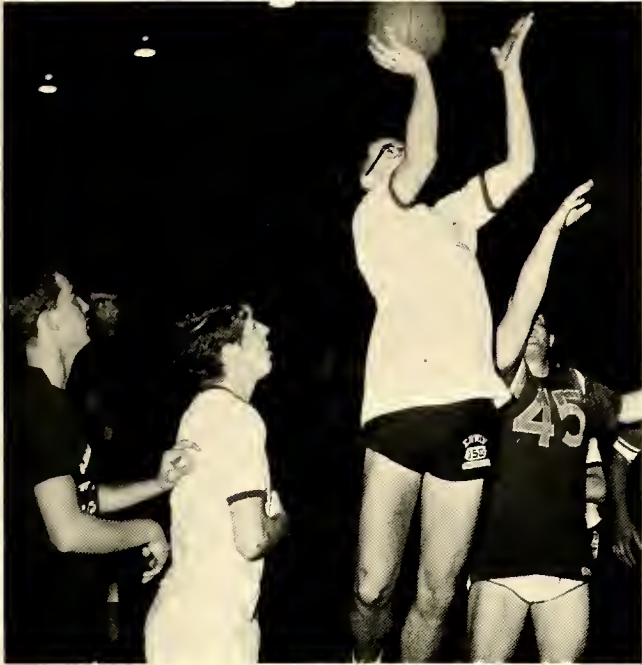

When frustration and anxiety build up after long hours of study, there must be available some form of activity to relieve the tensions. At Lees-McRae, the students release their energy and calm their nerves by participation in intramural sports.

Intramurals also promote sportsmanship and offer the students an opportunity to excel in areas outside the academic curricula. The activities this year included volleyball, basketball, softball, pool, and ping-pong. All teams were entirely composed by the students themselves, while the team events were held under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker and Mr. May. The championship teams in each sport were awarded with trophies.

The well organized intramural program helped to develop the students socially and helped to promote a friendly atmosphere on campus.

Cathy Haracz's plans are thwarted by opponent during girls' basketball intramural action. Boys' intramurals has host of good teams . . . plenty of thrills and aggressive games.

Martha Paskewich, Cathie Haracz, Edie Rosenblatt, and Barbara Gardner grapple for ball.

Intramural sports provide Lees-McRae students with an opportunity to participate in such athletics as volleyball, basketball, and tennis. Throughout the school year girls and boys teams compete in various sports, with tournaments being held at the end of each season. Intramural letter awards and trophies are awarded to the championship teams in each sport.

Men's intramural action featured stiff competition.

In volleyball, basketball, badminton, tennis, and pool tournaments each student may find a sport to interest him, and to provide an outlet for his athletic interests and energies. Intramurals promote sportsmanship and offer the student an opportunity to excel in areas outside the classroom. The success of the intramural program is due to the superb efforts of Mrs. Ron Whittaker for the girls' activities and Mr. Whittaker, Mr. May, and the Athletic Director, Mr. George Litton.

Harvey and Reardon look on as Weaver controls ball.

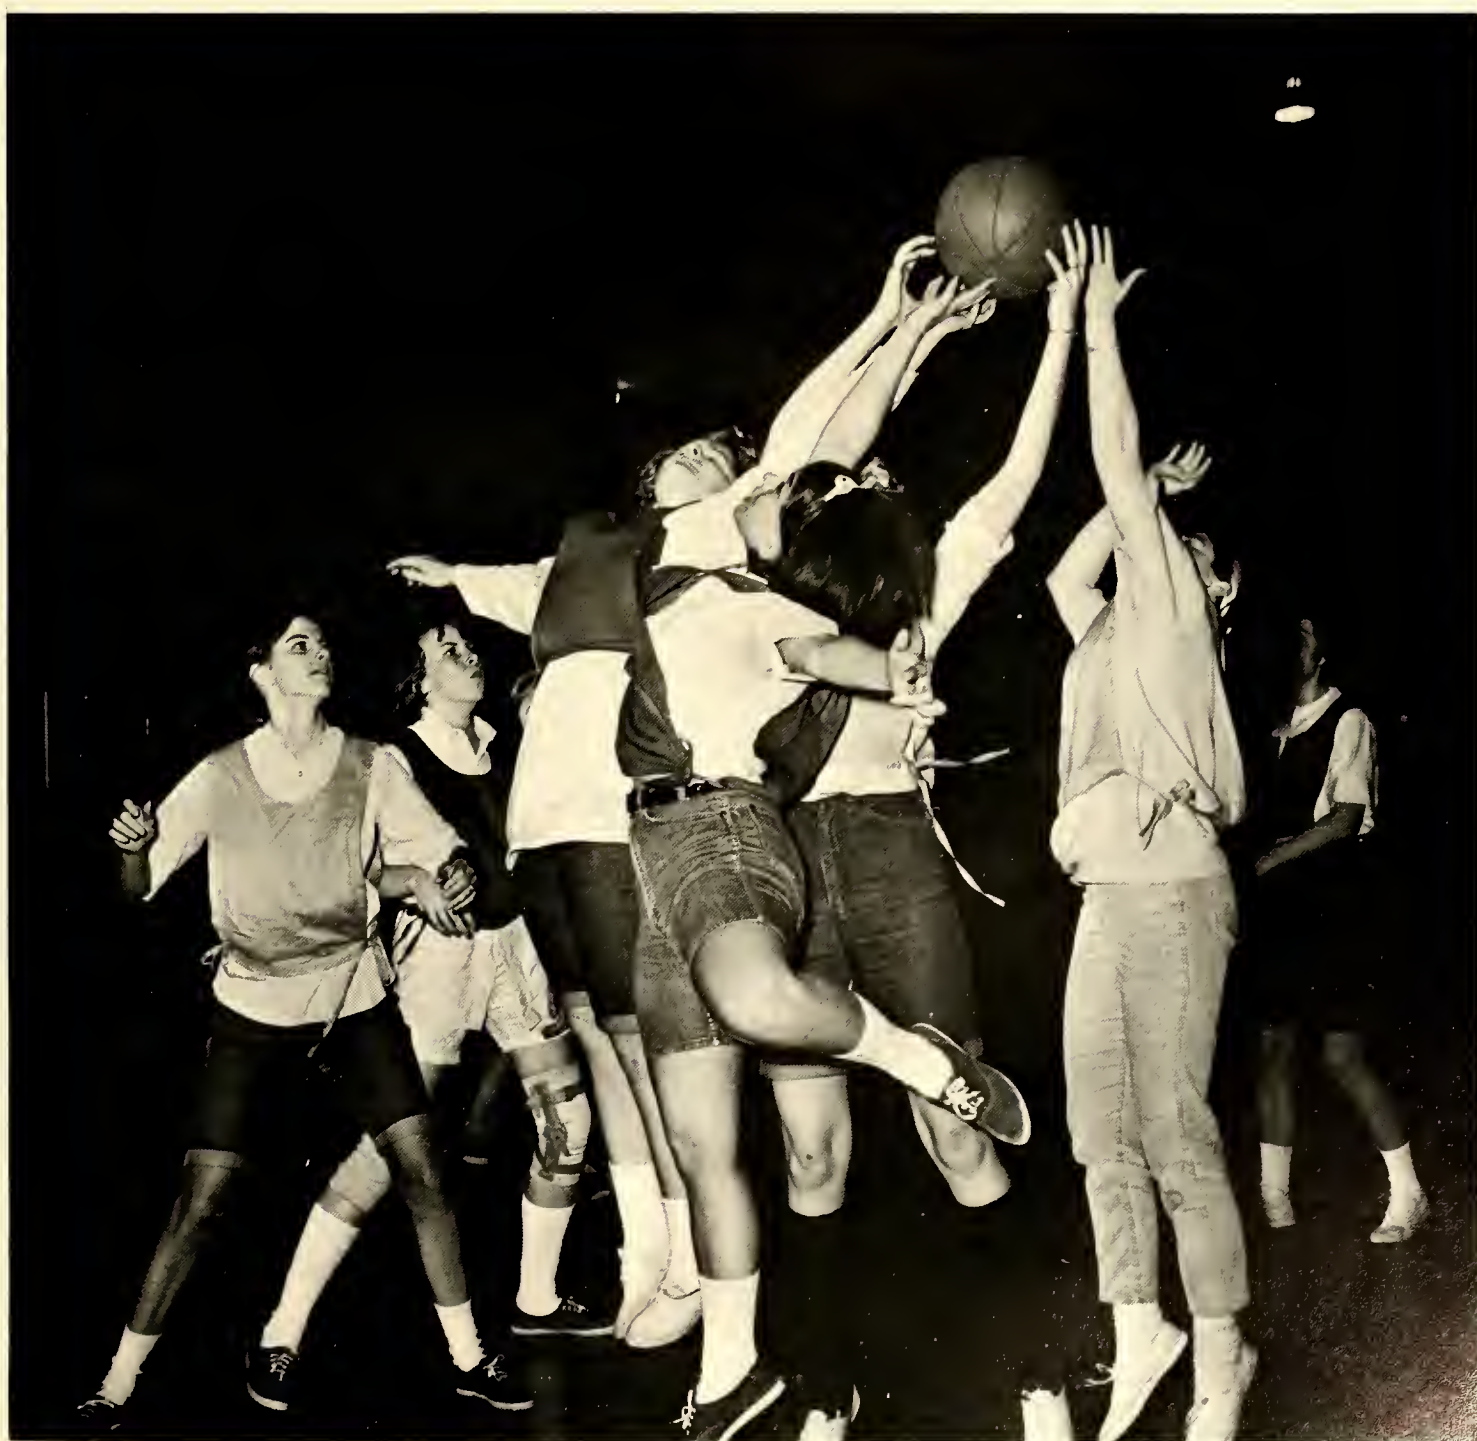

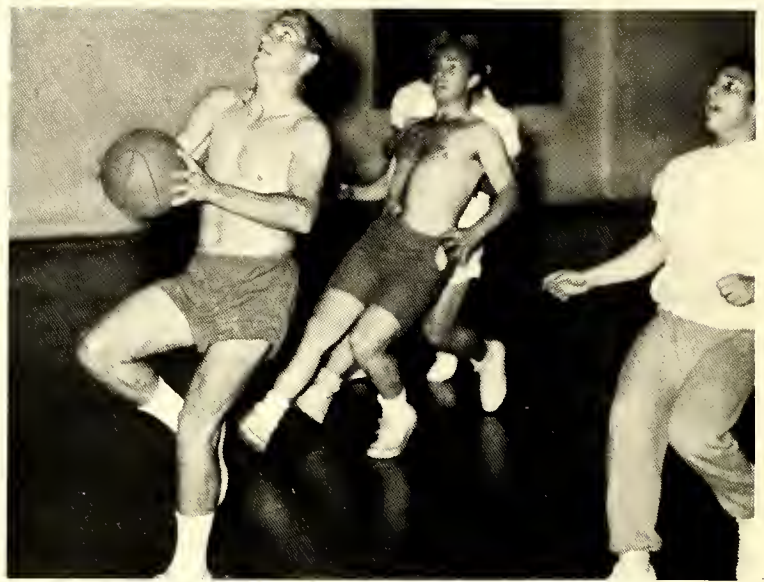

Girl's volleyball action: How to spike the ball with your elbow.

Intramurals offer a rugged and varied program. Girls and boys alike take advantage of the opportunity to excel in activities outside the classroom. For this reason, the Intramural program is an important part of the athletic program at Lees-McRae. Coach George Litton, Athletic Director is in charge of the over-all organization of Intramural Athletics.

ABOVE: Coach Whittaker referees wrestling match between Roger Teeter and Gary Leonard. With the purchase of wrestling mats last year, the Athletic Department instituted wrestling on an intramural basis. It is planned as an inter-collegiate sport in the future.

LEES-McRAE'S ATHLETIC PROGRAM IS UNIQUE. WITH ONLY A LITTLE OVER 300 MALE STUDENTS, THE COLLEGE PARTICIPATES IN FIVE INTER-COLLEGIATE SPORTS, FOOTBALL, BASKETBALL, TRACK, TENNIS, AND GOLF. ALSO A RIGOROUS AND VERSIFIED PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND INTRAMURAL PROGRAM IS OFFERED.

ALSO STUDENTS WHO EXCEL IN SURFBOARDING, ROLLER SKATING, BRONCHO BUSTING, ATTEND LEES-McRAE AND THE SAME GOES FOR OUTSTANDING CYCLISTS SUCH AS SMOKEY WIGGINS, WHO REPRESENTED LEES-McRAE IN THE NATIONALS.

WIGGINS BIKES LEES-McRAE TO FAME—TAKES THIRD IN NATION

William "Smokey" Wiggins, a freshman at Lees-McRae College, rode his bicycle to racing fame in competition with outstanding colleges and universities across the nation. On Oct. 2, Wiggins entered the Eastern Collegiate Cycling Championship held in New York. Over 15 colleges participated. First place went to Rockland State University of New York. Lees-McRae and Long Island University (Brooklyn, N. Y.) were tied for second place and Lees-McRae lost by the toss of the coin to Long Island which placed the LMC cyclist champ, Wiggins, third.

The individual winners receive medals and the schools placing receive a perpetual trophy which must be returned the following year.

On Oct. 10, Wiggins competed in the National Collegiate Cycling Championship also held in New York, after having qualified the week before in the Eastern Championship. Some of the outstanding schools in the national event were: Princeton, Cornell, Seton Hall, New York University, Fairleigh Dickinson, Penn. State. Rockland State repeated in the number one place along with Long Island University capturing second place, Lees-McRae College's Wiggins came in third, and New York University fourth.

Wiggins is looking forward to returning to the National Championships again next year.

FEATURES . . .

Special occasions during the year bring forth an opportunity for the various clubs and organizations to sponsor the dances which take place at Lees-McRae. These events range from the major dances, as the Homecoming Dance and the May Dance, to the sock-hops, sponsored by the Freshman Class to fill the free time of week-ends. Falling between the two major dances are the Halloween Carnival Dance, the Christmas Dance, and the Valentine Dance.

The annual Halloween Carnival, under the direction of the Order of the Tower, was held in the Chaffee Center Auditorium on Thursday, October 28. The carnival served two main purposes: An evening of fun and recreation for students, and a money-making project for the clubs on campus. Each participating club was responsible for the building and operation of a carnival booth, and the club was allowed to fatten its treasury with the money earned by the booth. The following clubs operated booths in the carnival: Phi Theta Kappa, Dart Throw; Cheerleaders, Marshmallow Kiss; ASB, Sponge Throw; Delta Delta Gamma Fraternity, Ball Toss; WAA, Balloon Shave; Monogram, Basketball Toss; Sullivanian Sorority, Penny Throw; and Christian Council, Cake Walk.

The Members of the Order of the Tower, under the supervision of Mr. Don Baker and Mr. Richard Jackson, organized the carnival and presented the door prize and a prize for the best costume. Missy Clark (The Bunny) and Skip Thompson (The Playboy) ran away with the best-costume prizes. A bit of humor and school spirit was contributed to the festivities by the four cheerleaders (Russ, "Goon", Richard, and Herman) who led the students in a Bobcat cheer or two . . . or three. The carnival was well supported by the clubs on campus and the students, and everyone who attended enjoyed an evening of fun and recreation.

The Sullivanian Sorority and the Delta Delta Gamma Fraternity merged together to sponsor the annual Christmas Dance. The theme was built around "Santa's Workshop", and old toys were collected from the Sullivanians' homes and given to the Fire Department to distribute among the children of the community.

In charge of Decorations were Kay Adams, Caroline Moore, Beth Amos, Fritz Riebe, Carter Wiseman, Larry Ellison, Gary Chenevey, and Edie Rosenblatt, who was also in charge of the refreshments and the band. Music was provided by the Nomads, who played for the students as they danced around a maze of trees, toys, and a fireplace. This year instead of having a Christmas Court, a Mr. & Miss Christmas was chosen from each class on the basis of personality, friendliness, and sincerity. The Sophomore representatives were Miss Edie Rosenblatt and Mike Proffit; Miss Carol Copeland and Derry Davis were the Freshman class representatives.

These dances mean work in planning for the theme, band, and decorations for each of these events. They also provide an opportunity for the clubs to sponsor activities for the Student Body, as well as helping promote the mood which surrounds each occasion. Each person who contributes to these dances, either by planning, decorating, or attending, quickly acquires the spirit which accompanies each season.

Homecoming 1965

The 1965 Homecoming brought with it the 25th Anniversary for the class of '40 while the class of '55 celebrated its 10th Anniversary with the largest number from their class attending the weekend festivities. The Homecoming Dance was sponsored by the L.M.C. Alumni Association with weeks of preparation by the Dance and Decoration committees headed by Herman Underwood. Miss Edith Rosenblatt, who was in charge of the tickets and refreshments, was assisted by Miss Georgia Giltenboth, and Tommy Waterman. Andy Worth assisted with decorations between picture taking. The music was furnished by the "Venturas" from Roanoke, who played to a capacity crowd.

Nine classes of alumni were represented, with members from the classes of 1930 to 1965 attending the Alumni Association meeting. New officers for the Association were elected with Miss Martha Guy, class of '41 as President; Mr. Robert Wendt, class of '42 as First Vice-President; Mr. Wayne Wyrick, class of '58 as Second Vice-President; and Mrs. Joyce Baker, class of '59 as Secretary-Treasurer.

Tennessee and McAlister Dorms emerged victorious from keen competition for the best dorm decorations. The only sad moment of the otherwise festive weekend was the Bobcat defeat by Gardner-Webb, 6-0, in a hard fought ball game.

Miss Beth Amos

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Miss Beth Amos, sponsored by the WAA, was announced Homecoming Queen and received roses from the A.S.B. President, Charlie Noe, during the half-time festivities. Representing the Monogram Club was Miss Judy Hawks, Maid of Honor, who received a scroll from Vice-President, Dart Hobbs. The other members of the court were Merry Schmid, representing the Sullivanian Sorority, and Carole Hanks, representing the Delta Delta Gamma Fraternity. Miss Amos was officially crowned Queen during intermission at the dance by co-captain of the Football team, Frankie Wright.

TOBY HODGIN REIGNS AS QUEEN...

Built around the theme of "Cupid Strikes Again", the Sullivanian Sorority and Delta Delta Gamma Fraternity again joined forces to give the Student Body the 1966 Valentine Dance. Under the leadership of Betsy Clapp and Sandy Brown, the decorations committee, consisting of Toby Hodgin, Marci Tomlin, and Merry Schmid, went to work to obtain the necessary Hearts and Cupids which were arranged about the auditorium. Edie Rosenblatt was in charge of the refreshments and the band, the "Shadows". After the commentary from Sophomore Class President, Larry Ellison, he presented the Queen, Miss Toby Hodgin, her court, and their escorts.

HEARTS COURT

This year's Valentine Dance had for its theme "Cupid Strikes Again". The queen and her court were presented among a maze of hearts and cupids. Miss Toby Hodgkin was crowned queen by Col. Chapman, and presented flowers by Miss Edith Rosenblatt, President of the Sullivanians. The Sophomore Maid of Honor was Miss Phyllis Ligon; the Freshman Maid of Honor was Miss Terry Rary. The court was announced by Mr. Larry Ellison, President of the Sophomore Class. The co-sponsors for the dance were the Sullivanian Sorority and the Delta Delta Gamma Fraternity. Music was furnished by the "Shadows".

The 1965 May Dance crowned Miss Mary Jane Wood as Queen and Miss Terry Edwards as Maid of Honor. Miss Wood was presented her crown by Mr. Don Baker, Director of Public Relations at Lees-McRae. The WAA and Monogram Club sponsored the dance which had as its theme "Night on the Town."

This year the festivities again were sponsored by the WAA and Monogram Club. The 1966 May Queen is Miss Judy Lowe, with Miss Susannah Chetwood reigning as Freshman Maid of Honor. The other girls who compile the May Court are Miss Maria Mentavlos of Gastonia, Miss Alice Holman of West Jefferson, Miss Connie Brisson of Bladenboro, Miss Lynn Schmidt of Chalfont, Penn., Miss Robbie Robertson of Key West, Fla., and Miss Gale Evans of Chester, S. C.

An air of excitement filled each attendant and her escort as each was presented. The climax of the festivities was the crowning of the Queen which was followed by the coronation dance. March winds and April showers brought May flowers--the May Dance and the Lovely Judy Lowe reigning as May Queen ushered in the climax to another successful year at the "Campus in the Clouds."

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Lees-McRae College believes that the highest education is Christian. Offering educational opportunity in a Christian environment, it strives to give meaning to its belief that Christian ideals and a trained intelligence are essentials for abundant living. Lees-McRae's determination is that students shall leave this "campus in the clouds" with minds agile enough to use, with character strong enough to hold.

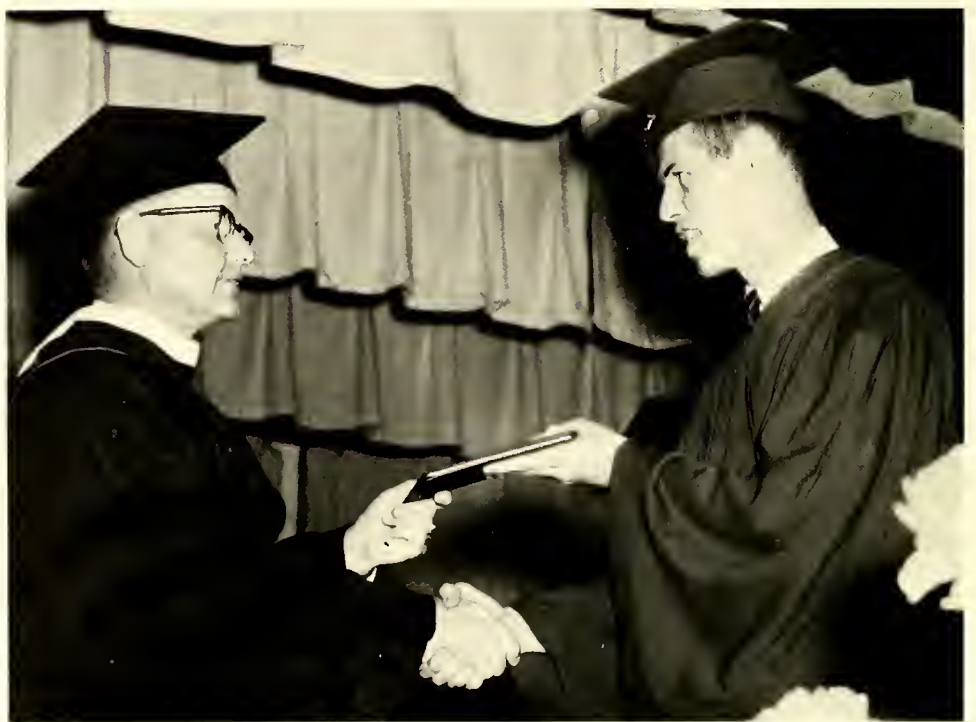

A well-qualified faculty of 35 members and staff of 21 members devote their time and talents to the student body both in class and in personal conferences, enhancing the academic atmosphere with excellent relationships between the teachers and the students. These people assist the college in planning an academic program which will train the intelligence, strengthen the body, and provide a rich spiritual and social life leading to wholesome personal living.

The College Board of Trustees, chaired by Dr. Lee G. Davy, works diligently and unselfishly for the welfare and progress of Lees-McRae. It offers valuable guidance and direction which is essential for an educational institution confronted with the challenges and complexities of a jet-age society and jet-propelled education.

Lees-McRae College represents an idea which is not realized in the stone of its buildings, nor in the accumulated wisdom of its library or faculty, but in the minds of the young men and women who attended the "campus in the clouds". Lees-McRae is the students; the students are Lees-McRae--not as they exist one by one, but as they are unified by the idea that is contained within them.

Trustee, Rev. T. Hartley Hall, speaks at Founder's Day.

OUR PRESIDENT

Colonel Max C. Chapman
Colonel Chapman assumed the duties as President in August of 1961. Colonel Chapman, the winner of the Legion of Merit and Bronze Star Medals, came to Lees-McRae from Washington after he retired as assistant to the Director of Naval Intelligence for Marine Corps matters. Colonel Chapman, a graduate of Clemson College, also attended the Marine Corps Command and Staff School and the British Imperial Defense College of London, England.

NEW BOARD OF TRUSTEES ORGANIZED FOR LEES-McRAE COLLEGE

Lees-McRae College reached a new pinnacle in her history this year as the first separate Board of Trustees for the college met and organized and elected officers.

It was a historical moment for the college, who now has a separate Board of Trustees under the revised charters of the Edgar Tufts Memorial Association.

The distinguished members of the Board of Trustees, from all walks of life, met for the first time and formally organized the Board. Dr. Lee G. Davy, Vice-President, Development, Tennessee Eastman Corporation of Kingsport, Tennessee, was elected Chairman of the Board of Trustees. Dr. Frontis Johnston, Dean of the Faculty, Davidson College, was elected Vice-Chairman of the Board. The Board then elected officers for the college and Colonel Max C. Chapman was elected President and Treasurer. Leroy H. McCaskey, Director of Admissions and Student Services was elected Vice-President of the College, and Dr. Robert Newman, Academic Dean of the College, was elected Secretary.

The newly elected Board of Trustees of Lees-McRae College are Dr. Frontis Johnston, Dean of the Faculty, Davidson College; Rev. H. L. Underwood, Minister, Salisbury, N. C.; Rev. T. Hartley Hall IV, Minister, Lenoir, N. C.; Mr. John Forbes, Assistant Principal, Happy Valley High School, Carter County, Tennessee; Dr. Lee G. Davy, Vice-President, Development, Tennessee Eastman Corporation, Kingsport; Dr. George A. Anderson, Dean of Students, King College, Bristol, Tennessee; Admiral Cato Glover, (U. S. Navy, retired), Camden, South Carolina; Mr. James H. Carson, Charlotte realtor; Mr. H. Gardner Hudson, Winston-Salem Attorney; Mr. Alvin E. Dresser, Engineer of Charlotte, Dr. Reuben Eliassen, Dean Emeritus, Graduate School, ETSU, and Mr. Sam Erwin III, Morganton Attorney.

TOP ROW L-R: Dr. Davy, Chairman; Admiral Glover; Dr. Johnston; Mr. Carson; Mr. Forbes; Rev. Hall. SECOND ROW L-R: Rev. Anderson; Mr. Hudson; Rev. Underwood; Mr. Erwin; Mr. Dresser; and Dr. Ellassen.

Those people who serve directly under and assist the President of the College are of vital importance to the college. MISS MARY JANE MILLER is in her first year as Secretary to the President. She is an LMC graduate of 1964. MRS. LOIS LATHAN and MRS. DEANNE HERCKNER work diligently in assisting in business affairs of the college, headed by President Chapman.

DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS; STUDENT SERVICES

Under the guidance of MR. LEROY McCASKEY, the student enrollment has grown in large proportions. Also, through his tireless effort, the student activities and student life have been made more enjoyable and pleasant. He has been aided in serving The Student Body through the help of his assistant, Miss Eleanor Osborne, The Dean of Women, Mrs. Peggy Whittaker, The Dean of Men, Mr. Carl Herckner, and the College Chaplain, the Reverend Phillip O. Evaul. Mr. McCaskey was appointed Director of Admissions in the fall of 1962. During the summer of 1963, he accepted the post of Director of College Relations, and in the summer of 1964, he assumed the position of Director of Student Services. A graduate of Tennessee Polytechnical Institute, Mr. McCaskey came to Lees-McRae after teaching in high school in Georgia. His office is in charge of admissions, recruitments, and student services at the college.

ACADEMIC DEAN

Dr. Newman filled the post of Academic Dean vacated by Lewis Hall in June of 1965. Dr. Newman had served previously as chaplain of the college and as a Bible instructor. Dr. Newman received his A. B. degree from the University of Florida and was graduated from Columbia Theological Seminary. Upon graduation from the seminary he attended Drew University where he received his Ph. D. in New Testament Study. Under Dean Newman's guidance the faculty strives to offer sound, competent instruction to LMC students. It is Dr. Newman's desire, and direction to the faculty to give the student a sound foundation in liberal arts and other programs in terminal study, as well as those programs planned for those students who will continue their education at a senior college.

Fine arts and languages offer enrichment . . . Students are encouraged to develop an appreciation for the emotional and cultural values of music, art, languages, literature, and in the process to become more enlightened concerning their own identity and culture. One purpose of the work in English is to put the student in communication with some of the great writers of the past, as well as of the present, who have used their media effectively for the expression of what they have felt to be significant concerns of the individual and of his society.

Religion is an integral, inescapable part of all human life. We attempt to examine and understand our Judeo-Christian heritage in order that we may abandon prejudice and re-affirm truth. From a critically intelligent and mature perspective, we may thus responsibly influence the values of our present and future society.

DIVISION OF SOCIAL STUDIES

The social sciences offer the student studies in the major political, economic, cultural and religious movements of the past as well as those of the present. Since an understanding of human behavior is the basis upon which all social knowledge is built, studies in these areas will better prepare the student to understand the present and plan for the future.

DIVISION OF HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Study and activity in the areas of Health and Physical Education provide experiences which will stimulate the growth and development of neuromuscular skills, provide a basis for social and psychological development, and expose the student to invaluable experiences in the area of democratic living.

Phys. Ed. offers rigorous program of physical fitness.

SOPHOMORES . . .

Early in September, before the Freshmen arrived, the Sophomores returned to the "Campus in the Clouds" to assist the faculty and Administration with the Registration program, the Orientation for Freshmen, and later in the year, helped with the Testing Day Program. They soon joined the Underclassmen in getting settled to the routine of classes and studies.

There are many moods which go together to form the Sophomore's year . . . Happiness of being a Sophomore, confidence that goes along with the position of being an upperclassman, anticipation of what lies ahead, and melancholy because of the approaching end of their LMC career.

The two years' experience which he has gained at Lees-McRae has prepared him for the outside world and for the many different obstacles which await him in the future. His memories will always be filled with his days at Lees-McRae where his hopes for the future took a step toward realization.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

As the Freshmen arrived on campus, they were greeted by an air of friendliness accompanied by an assuring smile which ushered them through orientation, registration, "Rat Week," and adjustments to the atmosphere of college life.

The Freshmen experienced mixed emotions of excitement and homesickness, Joy and disappointments, but most of all they brought with them a spirit of enthusiasm which infiltrated all the phases of college life. The major activity to further the social life on campus, was the sponsoring of many informal sock-hops to fill the free time on week-ends.

As is evident, the Class of 1967 brought a new surge of vigor and school spirit to the "Campus in the Clouds."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This book is the reward for the time spent, the sincere advice given, the criticism offered, and the hard work done by the following people, who should be recognized and sincerely thanked for their fine effort which has made these pages a reality.

Mr. Donald R. Baker is thanked for the contribution of his artistic talents in the layout for the book, and his leadership applied as sponsor.

Mr. Herman Underwood is recognized for the many hours of devoted work he has contributed. Each member of the Staff is thanked for his part, no matter how small, in the composition of material for this edition.

This book could not have been printed without a publisher, and the Delmar Printing Company's fine work has helped give this publication the quality we feel it should have.

Deeply appreciated is the co-operation and understanding received from the students, the faculty, and the administration.

Finally, the ONTAROGA Staff wishes to express its deepest appreciation to everyone who has contributed in anyway to this 1966 edition.

Thank you!

J. Andrew Wood
